Softlinx Announces the Availability of Replix ntFAX for Domino Version 5.0 to Fully Support Lotus Notes/Domino R5 Users

ORLANDO, Fla., January 16, 2000—Softlinx, Inc., a leading developer of fax messaging software, announces the availability of Replix nt FAX for Domino, Version 5.0, a new release of its fax messaging solution for Lotus Notes/Domino. This highly advanced fax messaging system furthers Softlinx's commitment to provide industry leading integrated fax messaging for a company's Lotus Notes and Domino environment. Replix ntFAX for Domino, Version 5.0 offers users a highly reliable, fully scaleable and easy to administer fax messaging solution, equally useful for users of Lotus Notes clients and those who access their Domino mail files using web browsers. This release provides many new features, including the capability for users to manage their personal fax server settings and outbound fax queue simply using a web browser.

This release fully supports Lotus Domino and Notes R5.0. Users can send faxes using the Lotus Notes client, web browsers, or other Domino applications. The Replix Fax Messaging template, based on the Domino R5.0 Mail template, included in this release provides the Fax Memo form and other features that simplify the task of sending faxes directly from the Domino messaging database. In addition, it supports Notes R4.5/4.6 as well as today's diverse enterprise environments by enabling others to send faxes using SMTP mail, Replix Fax for Windows client, and non-Domino applications developed using the Replix winAPI or javaKIT toolkits.

With its three-tiered architecture, which supports a multitude of clients and where the server comprises of the Fax Server and the Intelligent Modem Gateway (IMG) software components, Replix provides high scalability and a great deal of configuration flexibility. You can configure the IMG on the same physical machine as the Fax Server or distribute the components across your LAN, WAN, or the Internet to take advantage of the Least Cost Routing capabilities.

Replix ntFAX for Domino, version 5, is available as of December 20, 1999, the price starting at $4,995.
