Xerox Connect Signs a Worldwide Distribution Agreement with Softlinx to Distribute the Replix[®] Enterprise Fax Messaging System to Worldwide Markets

Westford, MASS. (January 30, 2002) - Softlinx, the global provider of enterprise messaging and mobile business solutions, today announced that it has entered into a new distributor partnership with Xerox Connect, a consulting, integration, and outsourcing arm of Xerox (NYSE: XRX), the global leader in document management business. Together the two companies will deliver enterprise fax and e-document delivery solutions based on the Softlinx' award-winning Replix[®] Enterprise Fax Server Platform. The offerings are targeted at major multinational enterprise clients that need scalable, high performance network fax messaging and e-document delivery system deployment over their corporate networks and the Internet.

"Xerox Connect has both the expertise in delivering and managing enterprise-scale business communications solutions, and outstanding global support and service capability that, Softlinx believes, are critical for success in managing our global client support requirements," said Frank Woo, president and COO. "These are the qualities that we look for in our partnership. We are very excited about this opportunity to form a strong business relationship with Xerox Connect."

The distribution partnership will enable Softlinx to provide expanded global support and services to its customers. Xerox Connect will resell Softlinx' ReplixFax fax server product line worldwide.
