Softlinx announces the release of the Oracle UCM Connector for Workshare DeltaView 3.0

The Connectors Allow Users to Compare Different Versions of the Word Document within Oracle UCM

North Billerica, MA (August 15, 2007) –Softlinx Inc., an industry leader in enterprise fax and document process automation solutions announced today the availability of Oracle UCM Connector for Workshare DeltaView 3.0.

Built using the Oracle Integration SDK, the Oracle UCM Connector for Workshare DeltaView 3.0 will allow Oracle UCM users quickly and effortlessly compare different versions of Word document and identify changes from within Oracle UCM, all without requiring users to extract different versions of the document from Oracle UCM separately for comparison.

“Many organizations create lengthy, complex documents with multiple versions from various parties, all stored in Oracle UCM. The Oracle UCM Connector for Workshare DeltaView improves office worker’s productivity by quickly identifying changes between versions of document with just a few clicks.” said Frank Woo, COO at Softlinx. Mr. Woo added, “DeltaView is a product that offers comprehensive, accurate and reliable comparisons. Being a partner of both Workshare and Oracle, Softlinx is in a unique position to develop the solution connecting these two products.”

The Oracle UCM Connector for Workshare DeltaView is installed as an add-on component to the Oracle UCM server, and requires Workshare DeltaView desktop license per each user.
